ABOUT ALOHASAFE ALERT APP

Aloha Safe is Hawai'i's official COVID-19 exposure notification app, developed by a local team of volunteers (our friends) in partnership with the Hawaii State Department of Health, Google, Apple and a nonprofit borne out of MIT. About half of the U.S. states are using the same technology and countries around the world are doing the same. Data has shown that for every 2 app downloads, 1 infection can be prevented. This free app keeps all data anonymous, does not use location (GPS) information and will help our community come together to move Hawaii toward a healthier future.

Download the AlohaSafe Alert app to get COVID-19 exposure notifications and help keep Hawaii safe and healthy – all while maintaining your privacy. ABOUT MELE IN HAWAI'I

From the creators of Mele in the Hale, Hawai'i's FIRST multi-home, live-streaming series since the stay-at-home pandemic mandate began, comes Haku Collective's year-round virtual series, Mele in Hawai'i. Each family-friendly virtual live-show episode, features Hawai'i's favorite entertainers sharing music and stories from their homes. Multi-streamed across Facebook and YouTube, the unplugged series was created to celebrate music from Hawai'i with a global audience while connecting our artists with their fans in an unprecedented authentic and personal way.

Hawai'i's top recording artists are regulars on the series including, comedians, and public figures such as Kimié Miner, Henry Kaponu, Anuhea, Josh Tatofi, Paula Fuga, Glenn of Maoli, Kalani Pe'a, Kapena, Amy Hānaiali'i, Mike Love, Mckenna Maduli, Mele Apana, Shannon Scott, and comedians Pashyn and Zavier Cummings, just to name a few.

Every Mele in Hawai'i segment ends with a 'Hana Hou' mele (song) from the artists on the featured episode. These collaborations are recorded and available for viewers to enjoy on YouTube, at the end of the live show. Check out previous 'Hana Hou' performances here: Hana Hou Series Trailer. And don't miss the exclusive "Artist to Watch" spotlight, featured at the top of each segment and discover the best kept artist secrets of Hawai'i...the future of Hawai'i's music. Viewers are invited to leave donations in the virtual tip jar at HakuHawaii.com/donate. We are primarily a donation-based show actively seeking sponsorships to support the guest artists and production costs.
