ABOUT HAKU COLLECTIVE

HAKU COLLECTIVE is a multi-faceted Music company created by artists for artists. Founded by singer/songwriter, Kimié Miner, we are a Native Hawaiian boutique music label and immersive product company located on the Island of O'ahu. At Haku, our story begins with music. Most recently celebrated for "Mele in Hawai'i," Haku Collective has hosted the longest running livestream entertainment series in Hawai'i since the Covid-pandemic began, supporting over 40-artists around the world while reaching a global audience with aloha.

Our first global project, GRAMMY® Nominated "Hawaiian Lullaby," features Hawai'i's top recording artists singing familiar songs in both English and Hawaiian. The story continues through our immersive lifestyle collection including apparel, a keiki line of products, and accessories. All of our signature Haku products are inspired, designed and locally curated in Hawai'i. For more information or to inquire on HAKU COLLECTIVE collaborations visit: <https://www.hakuhawaii.com> and follow our mele at @hakucollective and @playkimie.
